This document signifies an agreement between Brian Johnson Photography and the bride, groom or representative. It is used solely as a means for securing time and date, but also as a way to finalize the bond between photographer and client. By signing this agreement you are agreeing to make all payments necessary to receive all of the services described in the package that you have selected. Payments can be accepted as long as the balance is paid in full by the date being secured. A 20% deposit will be required at the time that this document is completed. All funds are non-refundable, however emergencies and extenuating circumstances can be an exception.

By signing this document, the photographer is agreeing to perform the service being requested. It is also confirming that the utmost care and consideration will be taken with all of the pictures and negatives from the wedding. Brian Johnson Photography is not responsible for any lost or damaged negatives or photographs. It is understood that Brian Johnson Photography may use any photograph for advertising purposes.
